

Research Development Workshops: Exploring Ethnic Diversity in UK Social Research

Free workshops in Sheffield and London exploring good scientific and ethical practice in researching ethnic diversity.

Using a combination of lectures, exercises and open discussion workshops will explore:

- how to increase the quality of research
 - ethical and scientific issues
- guidance for good practice throughout the research cycle
 - findings from an ongoing JRF funded project

Four tailored one-day workshops (11:00am-4:00pm) are planned for researchers and research commissioners.

Date	Audience	Location
15th April 2010	Researchers in HEIs—particularly junior researchers and doctoral students	Sheffield Hallam University
16th April 2010	Researchers in government departments	Sheffield Hallam University
27th April 2010	Researchers in private and voluntary research agencies	London Metropolitan University
28th April 2010	Commissioners and funders of social research	London Metropolitan University

Workshop facilitators will include: Dr. Sarah Salway, Professor George Ellison, Dr. Peter Allmark, Punita Chowbey, Ruth Barley and Helen Barnard (Joseph Rowntree Foundation)

Places on the workshops are limited. Please complete the attached registration form to register for a place.

A small number of travel bursaries are available to help doctoral students attend an event. For more information please contact Ruth Barley at r.barley@shu.ac.uk or on 0114 225 5585.